

PATHWAYS THROUGH NATURE, A LIFETIME JOURNEY SPEAKER SERIES

The Green Center presents a series of speakers who will share stories and recollections of their experiences in nature and the impact it had on their lives.

“Synesthesia: A Life Painting the Physics of Light”

with
Bryan Haynes,
Artist

Tuesday, February 28, 2023
6:00p.m.

The Green Center
8025 Blackberry Ave
St. Louis, MO 63130

RSVP by February 24 on our website.

Limited Seating!

Questions? 314-725-8314 Ext. 105 or classes@thegreencenter.org

“My father told me that if I used a prism, a sunbeam could be separated into a whole rainbow of colors. My scientist father made the physics of light a thing of wonder. He said it was a beautiful thing to describe the whole world and all shapes within it. He told me it was possible to carve light in my paintings to describe an entire universe. This son became the artist the father wanted to be.”

Since graduating of the Art Center College of Design, Pasadena, CA in 1983, Bryan Haynes’ work has included murals and large scale paintings for; The Kauffman Foundation in Kansas City, The Missouri Botanical Garden’s permanent collection, The Westward Expansion Memorial Museum at the Arch, Novus International Inc., Edward Jones, Inc., Missouri Athletic Club, Arrowhead Stadium, The Missouri History Museum, PGAV Architects, First Bank, and the Danforth Plant Science Center. Additional patrons include Disney, Estee Lauder, Warner Bros., Toblerone – Switzerland, Universal Studios, IBM, Nike, Sony Music Corp., and Anheuser Busch.

Gallery representation includes; Bryan Haynes Gallery, Washington, Missouri; Kodner Gallery of Ladue; Manitou Galleries, Santa Fe, New Mexico; Maxwell Alexander Gallery, Los Angeles, CA.