

Connecting People with Nature
through Science and the Arts

The World, Two Wheels, & A Sketchbook by Artist Sophie Binder

Opening September 12- November 4, 2017

Sophie Binder is a freelance designer/illustrator born in France, now based in St. Louis. In April 2001, she quit her job and put all her belongings in storage to fulfill a longtime dream to bicycle and sketch her way around the world. What followed was a solo adventure that would take her through 16 countries across Europe, the Middle East, India, Southeast Asia, New Zealand and the U.S., pedaling 14,000 miles in 14 months. She came back in June 2002 with seven sketchbooks full of watercolors and stories.
